

California
4-H
Youth DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

See what 4-H has to offer YOUth in Contra Costa County!

Select a club nearest your home in Contra Costa County. . .

Brentwood 4-H
Brentwood

Briones 4-H
Martinez

Clayton Valley 4-H
Concord/Clayton

Concord 4-H
Concord/Clayton

Delta-Diablo 4-H
Pittsburg/Antioch/Oakley

Knightsen 4-H
Knightsen

Lamorinda 4-H
Lafayette/Moraga/Orinda

Pleasant Hill 4-H
Pleasant Hill

Tassajara 4-H
Alamo/Danville/San Ramon

- Research-based, experiential programs for diverse youth, ages 5-19
- Supports youth in developing citizenship, leadership and life skills
- Serves 120,000 to 140,000 youth each year throughout California, in urban, suburban and rural settings
- Engages youth in their communities and helps them develop relationships with caring adults
- Delivers programs through a wide range of delivery modes, including: after-school, special projects, and clubs
- Is located in every county in the state, at the County Cooperative Extension Office
- Involves a large volunteer network with 20,000 to 27,000 youth and adult volunteers each year
- Is funded by federal, state and local governments, as well as through corporate, foundation and individual gifts

MISSION STATEMENT:

The University of California 4-H Youth Development Program engages youth in reaching their fullest potential while advancing the field of youth development.

The 4-H Youth Development Program is based at the land-grant university in every state. Nationally, the program serves more than six million young people each year. On October 6th, the National 4-H Youth Development Program celebrates 104 years in existence!

Visit the State 4-H site:
www.ca4h.org
County site:
<http://groups.ucanr.org/cc4h/>

UNIVERSITY of CALIFORNIA
Agriculture &
Natural Resources

Contacts:

4-H Office – 75 Santa Barbara Rd. 2nd Fl.
Pleasant Hill, CA 94523
Program Coordinator
M-W 925-646-6120
e-mail: ctolleson@ucdavis.edu

M-F 925-646-6543 e-mail: llwhalen@ucdavis.edu

